ACCESS

Marseille International Airport, low-cost airline terminal, Aix-en-Provence TGV station, motorways, etc.

A GENTLE WAY OF LIFE

Mild temperatures, maximum sunshine, beautiful landscapes, and a warm and welcoming culture.

NUMEROUS SITES TO VISIT

Aix-en-Provence: the Old Town, the Cours Mirabeau, the Mazarin District, Cézanne's Studio, the Parc Jourdan, the Sainte-Victoire Mountain, etc.
Marseille: the Old Port, the MuCEM, Notre Dame de la Garde, the Prado Beaches, the Auffes Valley, Malmousque, etc.

AN ATTRACTIVE AREA AND A CUTTING-EDGE ECONOMY

The Aix-Marseille-Provence Metropolis has a high-tech economy and successful SMEs. This area has developed over the years and is one of the ten largest business parks in France, including the Business Park of Aix and the Arbois Méditerranée Environmental Technology Park. The Metropolis is also home to numerous industrial and logistics sites.

1 - Authentic Provençal culture

2 - Varied landscapes between land and sea

3 - Breathtaking sites (the Sainte-Victoire Mountain, the Calanques, etc.)

4 - A major economic area

5 - A renowned tourist destination

PROVENCE AND THE CÔTE D'AZUR PAR EXCELLENCE

Located in the heart of Provence, the Aix-en-Provence area is quite large and has many 'must see' sites. Whatever the month, this area offers unforgettable landscapes, breathtaking panoramas, cultural sites beloved worldwide, typical markets featuring the tastes of Provence, events, festivals and thousands of other highlights. There is something for everyone: stroll along the Cours Mirabeau, discover the Mazarin District, visit Cézanne's Studio in Aix-en-Provence, or climb the Sainte-Victoire mountain.

From the Old Port to the Calanques, via the 'Good Mother', Marseille is a territory with both varied and surprising landscapes. Omnipresent traces of a rich history can be seen in the architecture, the culture and the population. Because of its age, culture, strong identity and ethnic mix, Marseille is today one of the most cosmopolitan cities in France.

Each year, tourists flock to Marseille from all over the world. Classified as a city of art and history, it is developing thanks to its economic and cultural dynamism, which is now booming. Tourism and leisure activities are one of the main drivers of the Marseille economy.

These 22 km of natural coastline represent a unique, rugged and unspoilt landscape, whose already rich heritage is enhanced by the wild fauna and flora.

SAUSSET-LES-PINS

- Protection of the natural marine heritage
- Participation in better fishing resource management
- Promotion of marine heritage awareness and education

[illegible]

It stretches along the sea in a succession of small coves, white pebble beaches and tiny inlets, which you can discover along the old customs footpath that winds between Marseille and Martigues. The 5 km long Corniche walk (coastal path GR51) is very easy to access and offers superb panoramas of the Bay of Marseille and its islands.

The Beaches of Petit Rouveau and Grand Rouveau are pebble beaches.

ACTIVITIES

TO DISCOVER

- The Thursday and Sunday morning market
- The art gallery
- The Château Charles-Roux
- The sculpture of 2 dolphins
- The Chapelle Saint-Pierre

GOLFING

Nestled in the heart of the hill between sea and scrubland, in a splendid 9.3 hectare estate, the Côte Bleue Golf Club offers breathtaking views of the sea, a real 9-hole course with a technical and varied layout, a practice range with 15 stations (6 of which are covered), 2 approach areas and a putting green. The Côte Bleue Golf Club is ideally located, 5 minutes from the ports of Sausset-les-Pins and Carry-le-Rouet.

You will also find the Aix Marseille Golf Training Centre 25 minutes away and the Bastide de la Salette Marseille Golf Course (18 holes) 40 minutes away (9 holes with a covered practice range).

ACROBATIC COURSE IN FIGUEROLLES

Indian Forest is located in the heart of the Figuerolles Park, north of Martigues. For amateurs and thrill seekers, this acrobatic course allows you to move from tree to tree and from workshop to workshop.

Nestled in 130 hectares of vegetation within the park, the Indian Forest of Figuerolles allows you to surpass yourself and have fun during your holiday.

The Indian Forest of Figuerolles offers 7 courses of varying levels.

SCUBA DIVING

Numerous service providers enable you to discover the seabed of the Mediterranean Sea, with its many coves, wrecks, fauna and flora. The Côte Bleue is perfect for scuba diving enthusiasts.

THE CÔTE BLEUE MARINE PARK

The Côte Bleue Marine Park was created 1983. The marine reserve, which includes the municipalities of Sausset-les-Pins, Carry-le-Rouet, le Rove, Martigues and Ensues-la-Redonne, aims to manage, protect and enhance the natural marine and coastal environments, participate in the sustainable management of fishing resources, and promote marine heritage awareness and education.

In order to inform and raise awareness among the inhabitants as well as tourists, events are organised during the summer season and throughout the year (guided tours, entertaining workshops, conferences, etc.).

LE GRANDE SENTIER DE LA CÔTE BLEUE (THE BIG BLUE COAST TRAIL)

This 62 km long trail is accessible to all. It passes through a variety of natural environments (pine forest, scrubland, botanical areas, etc.) with or without differences in level.

Running from Carro to Ensues-la-Redonne, it is composed of 17 loops ranging from 2 to 12 km, and can be walked in 3 to 4 days. Wishing to harmonise with the Côte Bleue train, most of the trails start from the stations.

WATER SPORTS

A wide range of activities and service providers are available: paddling, jet skiing, windsurfing, surfing, flyboarding, ski tubing, canoeing, sea fishing, etc.

LOCATION

With its privileged location in Sausset-les-Pins, the 'La Corniche Bleue' residence is a real jewel between pine forest and sea.

It benefits from an ideal location in a quiet, residential area. The first beaches are only 5 minutes' walk from the residence.
